I have tried to group the following issues by the design, then type style and color of the city, then usage and then by perforation.

The five major design types are easily grouped:
1st type, no imprint under design and a short torch.
2nd type, imprint under design, long torch handle.
3rd type, with imprint, two fingers touch thumb.
4th type no imprint under design, long torch.
5th type, same as 1st type except "(CO)MUNE" are square in comparison to the other types and "COMUNE" is slightly shorter.

4th type

Much research on this next series needs to be done. Multiples and sheets will be required to solve the puzzle. I believe that several printings had mixed font and different versions of the town name in the same sheet! I only have two pairs and numerous documents that support the theory. Many shades exist.

All appear somewhat crudely printed

Several different fonts used, look at the C's G's and size
 Variety: e of Gioia d'e'l Colle in italics
 Variety: C of 'C'olle in wrong font
 Variety: C of 'C.' backwards
 Variety: L of Col'l'e inverted
